A. LINCOLN FELTWELL
Illustrious Potentate

Greetings

The lingering twilight of nineteen hundred and twelve has given place to the grey dawn of nineteen hundred and thirteen. No clouds are upon the horizon to darken the onward march of the King of Day. Never did Day bid fair to be brighter, nor the full measure of time to be more pleasingly filled than Jaffa's present year.

Your newly elected Potentate desires in this manner to solicit your good will and good wishes, your helping hand and energetic boosting in the forward march of the Temple.

We want fifteen hundred members upon our rolls at the close of the present year. What a power for good, what a wonderful drawing magnet this splendid organization would be, if each and every one of us clasped hands in our purpose to attain yet greater and grander things. Let every Noble bethink himself of how he can help. The ways are many. A kindly word spoken for our Order; a petition; a thoughtful suggestion; a kindness shown; a cup of water in the name of our Shrine; your presence; your warm hand clasp; your pleasant smile.

As the year draws to a close, come close and yet closer to your Potentate. Hold up his hands in any good and right endeavor. He needs you. Let the setting sun's last rays silhouette us together against the background of deeds piled high as a monument to a year spent in useful work for our beloved Temple.

Yours in the faith,

A. LINCOLN FELTWELL, Potentate.

Oh, Ye Children of the Prophet!

Once again we hear the Muezzin call, which is to remind those of the True Faith that the

Illustrious Potentate

(May the blessings of Allah be upon him!)

Having received information that there are many weary Sons of the Desert who desire to join the ranks of the faithful,

Therefore Commands You

to cast aside the worries, cares and trials of life and to assemble under the protecting dome of our goodly Mosque on

Thursday April 17th

bringing with you as many of these weary Sons of the Desert as are seeking for the way to a new and better life, and wish to join the next Caravan to the Sacred City.

The Patrol, after a long and well-earned rest, is willing and anxious to make smooth the pathway of these "unregenerates" across the dreary wastes of the desert; and Jaffa Temple Band, having been rejuvenated, is ready and eager, in its new and Oriental costumes, to render the soft, sweet and plaintive music that will cheer and enliven the journey across the Desert of these seekers after wisdom, truth and good fellowship.

The Illustrious Potentate Also Reminds You

To look well to the comfort and enjoyment of every Noble within our portals, and to remember that Shriners are also Masons, and that Masonry teaches moderation in all things.

Never fail to do thy part,
Make good—the duty's thine;
The frosted mitt and the marble heart
Have no place in Jaffa's Shrine.

Business Session

3 P. M.

Petitions will be received and acted upon.

Petitions must be in the hands of the Recorder not later than 3 o'clock P. M., as the Potentate will open the Temple promptly at that hour.

Recommenders will please have all Novices at Jaffa Temple not later than 3.30 P. M.

The following resolution will come before the Temple for action:

Resolved, That the annual membership dues of Jaffa Temple for 1914 and 1915 be changed to ten dollars per capita.

Ceremonial Session

4 P. M.

You will need your green and white 1913 card to gain admission. Positively no one admitted without it.

Wear your Fez, a dress suit if you happen to have one; if not, any old thing will do, provided you wear a smiling countenance, a cheerful disposition and be ready to receive the glad hand of welcome which will be extended to you by the Reception Committee.

Visitors are always welcome to Jaffa Temple, provided they have the proper passports.

Traditional Feast, 6 P. M.

"You are nutty, mister, nutty,"

Said the valiant Outer Guard.

"Do you hope to gain admittance

When you fail to show your card?

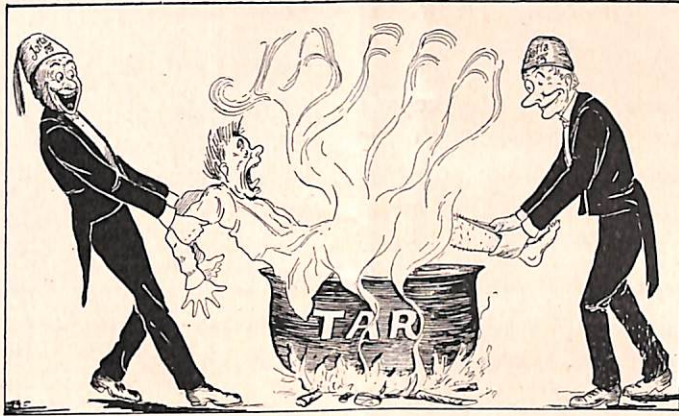

'I am from Missouri,' sonny;

'Show me;' then I'll know you're straight,

But without that bit of cardboard,

You had better 'pull your freight.' "

Novices, Remember!

If you don't get your money's worth, the Director will give you a rain check.

If you are dissatisfied don't sulk; go tell your friends—you may draw the first prize.

The tears you shed in your pilgrimage across the desert will, when you reach the Sacred City, be transformed into pearls to delight your future wives.

But let not your heart be troubled; you will have the time of your life, and if you should return to your home and loved ones no more forever, remember that automobiles and flying machines are daily producing the same results.

Inform the guide if you prefer violets to forget-me-nots, and always REMEMBER that

"Little words of kindness,
Little deeds of right,
Knock our daily troubles
Higher than a kite."

A Few Points for Our Nobles

A friend is like ivy—the greater the ruin, the closer he clings.

One who to himself is true, and therefore must be so to you.

The same today, the same tomorrow, either in prosperity, adversity or sorrow.

When some one "knocks" a Noble,
Pass around the loving cup,
Say something good about him,
If you have to make it up.

Thursday, May 15—A Wild West Round-up for those not taking part in the complimentary tour of Texas. Bucking bronchos, expert horsemanship, lariat-throwing, branding and spectacular features of the Southwest will make the visitors sit up and take notice.

Imperial Council de luxe specials will leave at 8.30 A. M., with all Imperial Officers and Representatives and their ladies on a complimentary one-thousand-mile tour of Texas, visiting Waco, Austin, San Antonio, Houston and Galveston, returning to Dallas before the expiration of limited tickets.

For visitors not eligible to take part in the complimentary trip, the railroads have granted a rate of $19.85, which includes railroad fare and Pullman accommodations for the entire four days.

An amendment is pending in the Imperial Council to increase the fee from $50.00 to $75.00, and as it will be acted on next May, you had better get your friends' petition in for this session and save him $25.00.
